Arianna String Quartet

Comprised of John McGrosso and Julia Sakharova on violin, Joanna Mendoza on viola, and Kurt Baldwin on cello, the Arianna String Quartet has firmly established itself as one of America's finest chamber ensembles. Formed in 1992, the group garnered national attention by winning the Grand Prize in the Fischhoff Chamber Music Competition, First Prize in both the Coleman and Carmel Chamber Music Competitions, and were Laureates in the Bordeaux International String Quartet Competition.

The quartet is in high demand the world over, touring throughout North America, South America, Europe and Asia, with frequent visits to Brazil and South Africa. They have collaborated with many of the world's finest musicians, including members of the Vermeer, Tokyo, Cleveland and Juilliard Quartets, and their live performances have been heard on National Public Radio's Performance Today and Live from Music Mountain, which broadcasts to 125 stations in the U.S. and to 35 countries. The ASQ has recorded for Albany Records and Urtext Digital Classics, and has a long-term contract with Centaur Records.

The Quartet delights reviewers and audiences alike. A reviewer for the St. Louis Post Dispatch wrote, "Members of the Arianna Quartet combine outstanding musicianship, technical mastery of their instruments, energy and focus that add up to great music-making," while the Chicago Tribune raved, "Quartet playing doesn't get much better than this."

The Quartet is also the force behind the Arianna Chamber Music Festival, held on the campus of the University of Missouri - St. Louis, where the members have been full-time faculty since 2000. They are Ensemble-in-Residence at the Touhill Performing Arts Center in St. Louis, where they present their own series of concerts.
